

Week 1: Overview of Investment and Finance in EMDEs

Introduction to Week 1

With Julius Gwyer

A warm welcome to Week one of this course. International financing and investment solutions are being deployed by the World Bank Group to address some of the world's most pressing public policy and development concerns.

In this context this course will address these challenges and opportunities. Watch the required videos and read the required materials and answer the multiple choice questions.